GRENFELL.
—Negotiations are nearly completed for the immediate erection of a flour mill here.

—The crops are looking very fine here. Some complaints from the gopher pest lately.

—Settlers are still coming here,
and enquiries are being made for lands to purchase and free grants.

—Service on Sunday was conducted by St. Michael's by Rev. Mr.
Cooper. He preached an excellent sermon on Matt. xi. 5. "The blind receive their sight."

—Rev. W. A. Cooke, formerly of Wolseley, has been appointed by the Methodist Conference to take charge of the mission here. Mr.
Cooke is very highly spoken of and will be well received.

—The cricket match here on the 1st July between Qu'Appelle and Grenfell ended in the defeat of the home team. There will be a match here between Indian Head and Grenfell on Saturday next, 9th inst.

BILLINGTON.
—Although the school was only opened last year, the attendance is about twenty, and is ably conducted by Miss McGowan.

—Billington is one of the prettiest places in the Northwest, situated in the midst of charming hills, close to a fine lake, and surrounded by an industrious and intelligent class of settlers, it forms one of the most pleasant and successful school districts in the country.

—The Queen's Jubilee was celebrated here by a grand tea and entertainment on the 21st June.
The school house was beautifully decorated in honor of the occasion,
and the tea was one of the best.

The tables were tastefully arranged and waited on in good style by the ladies of the neighborhood. The entertainment consisted of speeches, music, (vocal and instrumental) and readings and recitations. Besides local talent and a chorus by the school, the people of Grenfell and Broadview contributed to the programmes. Mr. R. E. Sherlock, of Grenfell, occupied the chair and presided over the meeting in his usual pleasant manner. Proceeds $41, in aid of school fund.

REGINA.
The following is the result of the races, etc., held here on Dominion Day.

In the one mile trotting race Jeddy's horse, Baylow, won first money; Smith's Ferry second;
time 2:45.

Race number two, one mile open race, heats two in three—Black Diamond took first money in 1:58;
MacGill's mare, second.

In the local open trotting race
Regina Kitten took first; time, 3:22;
Strong's horse, second.

Number four, running half mile heats, two in three—Wood Mount,
an Den first; Bay Duck, second;
Day Star, third; time, 58.

Number five, running half mile heats, ponies under 14 hands.
Home Rule first; Clear Grit, second;
Jack, third; time, 57.

Gentlemen's running race, half mile heats, 2 in 3, D. C. Carter, first; Bully, first; G. J. Hunter, second;
McMillan's, third.

The judges were Capt. Allen,
N. W. M. P., Wm. Biddle, Messrs.
Jaw and James Scott, Qu'Appelle.

In the baseball match between Regina and Moose Jaw, Regina latter won, the score being 10 to 12.

—Dr. Clark's Sarsaparilla cured a kind of blood disease from a common people to the worst case of Scrophulous. History: There is a patient under his all history complaints.

—"My dear," said a young wife to her husband, who had already fallen into the habit of going to the lodge in the evening, and who was just preparing to go out: "I am going up-street to interview the Mayor's commissioner this evening. I shall implied, an what business, pray?"
I want to see if he can give me any advice in regard to getting an Indian made in my line. Now, how do you think, provided I was going to see a newspaper instead of his hat, and there was a female a seat from the lodge that began to A. Z. stare at me?"

PERSONAL AND LITERARY.

—Parti were $300,000 worth of discounts in "Treasury" when she appeared in London recently.

—London supports an eight-page penny monthly, the sole contents of selected poems.

—Governor Adams, of Nevada, is "a natural factor," sometimes going a week without food. —Queen's Journal.

—An Icelandic illustrated monthly is to be published at Copenhagen, under the editorial direction of Bjornstjerne Bjornson.

—Mrs. Adam is the name of the editress of the Paris Novel, Revue, but also claims that she is only a granddaughter and not the original. —Philadelphia Call.

—The Journalists of Boston united recently in sending a congratulatory address to Colonel Charles A. Greene, on his eightieth birthday. He edited the Pilot for nearly half a century.

—James L. Stewart, a popular song writer, and author of "Johnny and Flower of Kildare," died the other day in the workhouse at Cincinnati after a prolonged illness. —Journal Times.

—Alfred Barry Lillan is the name of Hayard Taylor's daughter, who, according to her friends, has developed such extraordinary artistic abilities that American painters generally will need to take up kalsomining to get a living.
—N. Y. Herald.

—Mrs. Paul Ferris, of Boston, celebrated her ninety-fifth birthday recently, in the same house she entered as a bride seventy-three years ago. She has not been absent from the house in all these years for more than a week at a time.
—Boston Journal.

—An old man named Sampler, who was a flier in General Jackson's army at the battle of New Orleans, is still living near that city, aged ninety-four years. He still possesses the instrument he played on during the battle, and plays the same pieces he played
then. —Chicago Daily News.

—Miss Nellie Arthur, the President's daughter, went to the top of the Washington monument the other day, and sat out of the stones in position with her little hands. She is the second girl who has assisted the work, President Hayes' little daughter having added her mite to the enormous tower. —Hartford Post.

—Rev. Dr. Walker, Bishop of Dakota, is a man wherever he goes. Recently he preached at Whitewater, D. T., and as he left the church saw a crowd of men gathered in front of a saloon for two men to fight. He crossed the street, broke through the ring, separated the pugilists, and dispersed the crowd. —

A POPULAR MYTH.
Treating of a Hindoo Myth and its Construction in Fact.
The popular myth of India is very much like the popular myth of Europe, but as it is sung in a ballad it is more widely diffused and makes a more general impression than if it were passed from mouth to mouth in ordinary speech. "Legends of the Punjab," by Captain R. C. Temple, contains a very full and popular history of the Hindoo myth. There are three epochs of the Hindoo myth. The first epoch is the Hindoo myth of the Hindoo myth. The second epoch is the Hindoo myth of the Hindoo myth. The third epoch is the Hindoo myth of the Hindoo myth.

—A medical paper writes young doctors against prescribing "rubric" for coughs. "Too freely during that autumn months," as rubric is a stimulant, and drugs are apt to do more harm than good in that weather. A short cough prevention is made up of many different drugs, in the expectation that one of them may hit the mark and cure the patient.

The Regina Journal is away out again in reference to Mr. Petley, M. P., for East Assiniboia. We will show where next week.

One of the most striking proofs in favor of the true Messiahship of Jesus, is the prophecy regarding the place of His birth. Wise men came from the East to Jerusalem saying, "Where is he that is born king of the Jews?" Hearing of this Herod the king is troubled. What effect the alleged birth of one who had been long looked for by the Jews under him, would have upon his authority he could not tell. He called the chief priests and elders men of his capital together and asked of them where their Christ should be born. They answered—"In Bethlehem of Judea." Now neither Herod nor these Jews can be charged with conspiracy to favor the mission of Jesus as their subsequent course clearly shows. But before there was any reason for such representation their answer is given—"In Bethlehem—but how came their knowledge of this? from their own scriptures long and carefully preserved by them: And they gave their authority, Micah chapter 5 and verse 2. "But thou Bethlehem Ephratah, though thou be little among the thousands of Judea, yet one of thee shall be come forth unto me, that is to be ruler in Israel, whose goings forth have been from of old, from everlasting." Hearing these words they departed guided by the strange star that they had seen in the east that they went and found the young child and his mother, and fell down and worshipped him and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him gifts, gold, and frankincense, and myrrh. This book of Micah had been in the possession of the Jews over seven hundred years. The prophet Micah wrote as nearly as can be ascertained about seven hundred and ten years before the birth of Christ and yet was taught by God to foretell the exact place where the Messiah was to be born, so clearly that the learned men among the Jews were able to answer the question with the clearness shown in the gospel of Matthew, second chapter. Let the reader turn to the New Testament and without prejudice meet the wonderful proof carefully, then read the prophecy in Micah, fifth chapter and 2d verse, and we have found with us, with thank God for such a blessed evidence of the real Messiah.

"How do you know Mr. Duder?" I asked the New York girl of another. "I can't say that I know him, but I have met him several times." "Well, you ought to cultivate him." "Why, is he anything much?" "I don't know how he will be in the future, but now he needs cultivation about as much as any man ever met." Then they smiled softly at each other's eyes and went their separate ways, one with one finger.

THE great Dutch Remedy, Dr. Le Duc's Prescodial Life. These pills are positive, effective in all functional complaints, a steady-minded user never fail to bring about results of astonishment. Ask for your private or list. We recommend them most highly.

HOME & GOSSIP.

QU'APPELLE.

A sitting of the Supreme Court will be held here to-morrow, Friday, Judge Richardson is expected to preside.

The Rev. Dr. Bryce, of Winnipeg, will hold the morning and evening services in the Presbyterian church here on Sunday next.

Solid sole leather valises, Gladstone and Pacific bags, Californian saddles with double hair cinches at $40 each, at Milliken & Co's.

Mrs. McLeish lost a spring calf and had a yearling injured by the pay car train on the C. P. R. on the 1st. The yearling will recover.

The bill near the residence of Mr. A. J. Baker, immigration agent, has been levelled by the district statute labor under the able direction of Mr. A. McLane read over-see.

Any person finding a reporter's book with the name "James Weidman" on the outside of the cover will oblige by leaving it at this office or informing us of its whereabouts.

You will now find THE PROGRESS office and store on the corner of Qu'Appelle street and Ninth avenue. We trust our numerous patrons will continue to favor us in our new premises.

Mr. W. D. Perley, M. P., was in town Monday, having returned from Ottawa. He went this week to see his constituents in York County, and will visit different places in the northeastern portion of his district. On his return he will give a banquet at Qu'Appelle.

The public school closes today for the summer holidays. Mr. F. Hodgson has resigned his position as head teacher of the school on account of his health. This fact is regretted by many, as the pupils were making good progress under the able tuition of himself and Miss Bailey.

The crop prospects continue excellent. In a few isolated spots in some fields there are indications of blight, but as far as we can learn the injury is insignificant so far. The gophers which were allowed to live are of course doing some damage, but when these pests are not killed nothing else can be expected.

We understand that work will be continued in earnest with a largely augmented staff of navvies on the Wood Mountain and Qu'Appelle railway in about a fortnight. The company, through the efforts of Mr. T. W. Jackson, have received all the concessions asked for at the hands of the Dominion Government.

Gandy and the Racettes have so far evaded the police though in sight of them several times. The latest news of them is that they are surrounded in the vicinity of English in the valley of the Assiniboine river. They were hotly pursued by the police and swam the river, disappearing in the bush on the opposite side.

On account of moving our business into our new premises, we are a little behind time this week and two pages short of our regular size. This is the second move since we came to Qu'Appelle, but we are happy to say that it is this time to our own premises, the lots having been recently purchased and a building erected thereon, which, however, is not yet completed, the work on it still going on.

Mr. George Robinson, a gentleman of color and Melville Walker, a dusky maiden, were united in matrimony by Rev. A. Andrews on Monday afternoon last. Mr. Robinson engaged McLane's hall and revelled merrily to the strains of which the natives of this vicinity, and for some distance around, thronged the high fantastic to for three nights in succession. The Red River Girl seemed to be the most popular dance, and the really graceful way the native beauties responded to the music of a violin was the admiration of the many white spectators, some of whom occasionally participated in the dances.

EVANGELISTIC SERVICE.

On Sunday next, 9th inst., Mr. Tait, one of the leaders in the Rev. D. Savage's band movement in the eastern provinces, will visit Qu'Appelle to hold a series of revival meetings in the Methodist church. He will conduct services on Sabbath morning and evening in town and at Edgeley in the afternoon. During the week there will be service at Edgeley on Monday evening and in town on Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday evenings.

EDGELEY.

On Thursday the 14th inst., the ladies connected with the Edgeley church propose to have a rousing tea meeting, and invite all well-wishers to attend and enjoy the evening with them. Members of the Royal Templars of Temperance, of Qu'Appelle, will be present to give a choice selection of readings, recitations and singing. Speeches may be expected from the Rev. A. Andrews and others. The Edgeley choir will also be in attendance. Tea served from 17 till 19 o'clock. Admission 50c's, double tickets 75c's, children half price.

WE WONDER

Why the Ishmaelite editor of the Leader has so many quile fights on hand at present?

Why they shot the gophers while at the same time the stock was eating the crop near by?

Why it needed a gentleman of color to bring about the recent friendship between the "natives" and "freemasons."

Why the Qu'Appelle Cricket Club did not give us the score of the match between the Fort Club and themselves on Jubilee day?

How the Leader makes an intellectual giant out of an affected but ignorant snob who lacks the first principles of "professional decency."

Why there were not so many of the Fort citizens at the Jubilee celebration at Qu'Appelle as there were of our citizens who went to the Dominion Day celebration at the Fort?

SPLENDID SEND OFF.

The Rev. A. Hamilton, having been removed to the Whitehead mission, his many friends here met in the Presbyterian church on Monday evening last and by way of a send-off gave a free ice cream social, the promoters being the members of the Sabbath School, which owes its origin to Mr. Hamilton. Mr. Alex. McKenzie supplied the ice cream gratis and the ladies the cakes. The refreshments were all of an excellent character, and much enjoyed by old and young. The children were present in full force, and their parents and friends filled the church. Mr. W. D. Perley, M. P., occupied the chair. The children sang a hymn, "O, that will be joyful," when the following address from the Sabbath School was presented by Miss Lizzie McLane and Miss Lillie Auld.

Dear Sir: We, the members of the Sabbath School in connection with the Presbyterian church of Qu'Appelle, having but recently learned of your intended departure from our midst cannot allow this opportunity to pass without expressing our sincere regret that you are about to leave us, and here record our appreciation of your earnest efforts to promote our spiritual welfare during the last two years. The success which has crowned those efforts is manifest by the numerical strength and regular attendance of our members. We trust the School which you have thus so successfully organized may grow and prosper and bear good fruit from the seed which you have sown amongst us. We further express our sincere wishes for your future happiness in the new field of labor to which you are about to remove and hope you will find opportunities from time to time to visit your Sabbath School.

Signed on behalf of the Sabbath School.

Adams Auld, Superintendent.

Mr. Hamilton replied in a feeling manner, expressing his gratitude for the kindly expressions toward him. Mr. H. Walker gave a selection on the flute, Rev. A. Andrews (Methodist) made a happy speech and spoke in high terms of Mr. Hamilton's many excellent qualities. Mr. Walker gave a concertina solo. Mr. Hamilton in a few words again thanked those present for their expression of kindly feelings toward him, when the meeting was closed with the doxology and benediction.

NOTICE

SEALED TENDERS, marked "Tenders for the supply of beef," addressed to the Indian Commissioner, will be received at this Office, or at any of the undermentioned Agency Offices, up to noon of TUESDAY, 12TH JULY, 1887, for the supply of the following quantities fresh for Maniwagan's Agency, 45,000 lbs. "Tombow Hills" " 27,000 lbs. " " " " " 27,000 lbs. Beef to be of good quality, delivered on foot, one or more animals at a time, upon call of the Agent of the district, and at times and places designated by him; the whole animal, including the hide, to be the property of the Government, and to be paid per pound of the net weight of the four quarters of each animal, which, of course, can only be ascertained after it is skinned and dressed.

Should an Agent at any time during the hot weather require delivery of a smaller quantity of beef than would be obtained from a live animal, the delivery may be made of dressed meat instead of "on foot," and in that case, the contractor will not be required to deliver the official. Advertisements commence immediately after completion of contract.

Each tender must be accompanied by a receipted cheque, in favor of the Indian Commissioner for Manitoba and the Northwest Territories, or the equivalent in cash, for at least five per cent of the amount of the tender, which will be forfeited, if the party tendering declines to enter into a contract, when called upon to do so, for the whole or any portion of his tender, or if he fails to complete the work contracted for, if the tender is not accepted. The cheque, or cash deposited, will be returned to the Contractor, who will be required to furnish two approved sureties in the amount of the value of their contract for the due fulfillment of the same.

The lowest or any tender not necessarily accepted.
Indian Office,
Regina, 24th June, 1887.
(Signed) E. DWYEST,
Indian Commissioner.
